E-GIVING OPPORTUNITY

This is a time of year when many of us focus on getting organized and "de-cluttering" our surroundings – why not streamline your offertory and simplify your support for our parish and the ministries that mean so much to you? Now is a great time to stop using checks and envelopes, by switching to e-Giving – you can sign up from your computer, smartphone or tablet, and set up a recurring donation or make a one-time gift.

Recurring gifts help give our parish a steady, consistent offertory that strengthens the programs, services, and ministries we lead for our church families and for those in need throughout the community. Sign up today by visiting faith.direct/NY370, or text 'Enroll' to (929) 254-3850 or call Faith Direct customer service at 866-507-8757. Thank you for your continued support of our parish family.

TEXT-TO-GIVE

Another way to securely make a gift to our parish is by texting a dollar amount to (929) 254-3850. You will be asked to complete a one-time registration providing your billing and contact information. After this registration, you can give any time by texting a dollar amount to the phone number above.

FROM YOUR PASTOR'S HEART

©LPI

Dear parishioners,

When I walked into a CVS store a few days after Christmas, I was surprised by how quickly the atmosphere had changed overnight. The store was literally covered with heart-shaped chocolate boxes, Valentine cards, and pink and red plates. I rolled my eyes. "Really? They could at least wait for the New Year!"

The truth is that I do like Valentine's Day. For some people, Valentine's Day brings up lots of painful memories, just like any other holiday. Some people dislike the pressure that comes with a day like that. For me, Valentine's Day is not tied to gushy romance or obligation or painful experiences. I cherish it for its core concept. It's about love — and what's not to like about love? It is an opportunity to be thankful for the people who love us and a challenge to love others a little more.

There are several legends surrounding the origin of this day. One of them involves the story of St. Valentine, a priest living in Rome about 250 A.D. during the reign of Emperor Claudius. Claudius wanted young men to join his large army. However, many men just did not want to be in the army and fight in wars. They did not want to leave their wives or their fiancés and their families. Since not many men signed up to be in the army, Claudius decided not to allow any more marriages. After the Emperor's decree forbidding marriages throughout his empire, Father Valentine secretly performed marriage ceremonies. He would whisper the blessing to couples while hiding it from the authorities. One evening, the priest was caught performing a wedding and was arrested. He was told that his punishment was death. Many young people came to the jail to visit him. They threw flowers and notes up to his window. They wanted him to know that they, too, believed in married love. One of these young people was the daughter of the prison guard. Her father allowed her to visit him in his cell. She believed he did the right thing by ignoring the Emperor and performing marriage ceremonies. On the day he was to die, he left her a note thanking her for her friendship and loyalty. He signed it, "Love from your Valentine." That note started the custom of exchanging love notes on Valentine's Day. It was written on the day he died, February 14, 269 A.D. Today, the site of St. Valentine's martyrdom has been converted into a famous Church, located only a short walk from where I used to live in the heart of Rome. On St. Valentine's Day, that Church would be filled with red roses from pilgrims who come to venerate the saint's relics and celebrate his heroic sacrifice.

No matter the origin of St. Valentine's Day, it is good to celebrate love and to let those whom we love know that we do love them. Our loving relationships profoundly impact our lives. As the Trappist monk, Thomas Merton asserted, "Love affects more than our thinking and our behavior toward those we love. It transforms our entire life. Genuine love is a personal revolution. Love takes your ideas, your desires, and your actions and welds them together in one experience and one living reality, which is a new you." I invite you to take some time this week to reflect on this and let your loved ones and friends know that they are loved by you and that they have changed you by their love.

Mother Teresa said, "The hunger for love is much more difficult to remove than the hunger for bread". This is the modern saint who knew a few things about hunger. In fact, she devoted her life to caring for the poor, the sick, and the hungry. There is no doubt that love is what life is all about. It is the greatest source of meaning in life and is by far the deepest yearning of the human heart. The lack of love brings serious dysfunctions, along with a lack of confidence, the inability to have meaningful relationships, and a joyful life. Love generates joy, strength, courage, passion, and significance. It sustains relationships and gives meaning to all that we do.

St. Paul, addressing the Church in Corinth that was filled with discord and polarization, exhorted them: "Do everything in love," (1 Corinthians 16:14). The Apostle continues to remind us that everything passes, including wealth, success, talents. In the end, he said, "only these three remain: faith, hope, and love. But the greatest of these is love" (1 Corinthians 13:13). The kind of love St. Paul spoke about is not the sentimental, romantic kind of love based largely on feelings that the world promotes all the time, but it is the disinterested, life-giving love based solely on the love of God. By its nature, this kind of love is sacrificial and is always directed towards the good of the beloved. It is the kind of love by which Jesus Christ gives himself to us and to the world.

This is the kind of love that we are called to offer to one another. Let this love be our Valentine to everyone, showing the love God has for us in Jesus Christ by offering it to others, especially to those who hunger for love, and even to those who may not be lovable in our lives. Happy Valentine's Day, and may God bless you and all your beloved always!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Msgr. Cuong M. Pham

DEL CORAZON DEL PASTOR

Estimados feligreses,

Cuando entré en una tienda CVS unos días después de Navidad, me sorprendió lo rápido que había cambiado el ambiente durante la noche. La tienda estaba literalmente cubierta con cajas de bombones en forma de corazón, tarjetas de San Valentín y platos rosas y rojos. Rodé los ojos. "¿En realidad? ¡Al menos podrían esperar el Año Nuevo!

La verdad es que me gusta el día del amor y la amistad. Para algunas personas, el Día de San Valentín trae muchos recuerdos dolorosos, como cualquier otro día festivo. A algunas personas no les gusta la presión que conlleva un día como ese. Para mí, el Día de San Valentín no está ligado a un romance efusivo, a una obligación o a experiencias dolorosas. Lo aprecio por su concepto central. Se trata de amor, y ¿qué es lo que no le gusta del amor? Es una oportunidad para agradecer a las personas que nos aman y un desafío para amar un poco más a los demás.

Hay varias leyendas que rodean el origen de este día. Uno de ellos involucra la historia de San Valentín, un sacerdote que vive en Roma alrededor del año 250 d.C. durante el reinado del emperador Claudio. Claudio quería que los jóvenes se unieran a su gran ejército. Sin embargo, muchos hombres simplemente no querían estar en el ejército y pelear en guerras. No querían dejar a sus esposas ni a sus prometidos ni a sus familias. Dado que no muchos hombres se inscribieron para estar en el ejército, Claudio decidió no permitir más matrimonios. Después del decreto del Emperador que prohibía los matrimonios en todo su imperio, el Padre Valentine realizó ceremonias de matrimonio en secreto. Susurraría la bendición a las parejas mientras se la ocultaba a las autoridades. Una noche, el sacerdote fue sorprendido realizando una boda y fue arrestado. Le dijeron que su castigo era la muerte. Muchos jóvenes venían a la cárcel a visitarlo. Arrojaron flores y notas a su ventana. Querían que supiera que ellos también creían en el amor conyugal. Uno de estos jóvenes era la hija del guardia de la prisión. Su padre le permitió visitarlo en su celda. Ella creía que él hizo lo correcto al ignorar al Emperador y realizar ceremonias de matrimonio. El día que iba a morir, le dejó una nota agradeciéndole su amistad y lealtad. Lo firmó, "Con amor de tu Valentín". Esa nota inició la costumbre de intercambiar notas de amor en el Día de San Valentín. Fue escrito el día de su muerte, el 14 de febrero de 269 d. C. Hoy, el lugar del martirio de San Valentín se ha convertido en una iglesia famosa, ubicada a pocos pasos de donde yo vivía en el corazón de Roma. El día de San Valentín, esa Iglesia se llenaría de rosas rojas de los peregrinos que acuden a venerar las reliquias del santo y celebrar su heroico sacrificio.

No importa el origen del Día de San Valentín, es bueno celebrar el amor y hacerles saber a quienes amamos que los amamos. Nuestras relaciones amorosas impactan profundamente nuestras vidas. Como afirmó el monje trapense, Thomas Merton, "El amor afecta más que nuestro pensamiento y nuestro comportamiento hacia aquellos a quienes amamos. Transforma toda nuestra vida. El amor genuino es una revolución personal. El amor toma tus ideas, tus deseos y tus acciones y los une en una experiencia y una realidad viva, que es un nuevo tú". Los invito a que se tomen un tiempo esta semana para reflexionar sobre esto y hacerles saber a sus seres queridos y amigos que son amados por ustedes y que los han cambiado por su amor.

Madre Teresa dijo: "El hambre de amor es mucho más difícil de quitar que el hambre de pan". Este es el santo moderno que sabía algunas cosas sobre el hambre. De hecho, dedicó su vida al cuidado de los pobres, los enfermos y los hambrientos. No hay duda de que el amor es de lo que se trata la vida. Es la mayor fuente de significado en la vida y es, con mucho, el anhelo más profundo del corazón humano. La falta de amor trae serias disfunciones, junto con la falta de confianza, la incapacidad de tener relaciones significativas y una vida feliz. El amor genera alegría, fuerza, coraje, pasión y significado. Sostiene relaciones y da significado a todo lo que hacemos.

San Pablo, dirigiéndose a la Iglesia de Corinto que estaba llena de discordia y polarización, les exhortó: "Hacedlo todo con amor" (1 Corintios 16,14). El Apóstol continúa recordándonos que todo pasa, incluidas las riquezas, el éxito, los talentos. Al final, dijo, "solo quedan estos tres: la fe, la esperanza y el amor. Pero el mayor de ellos es el amor" (1 Corintios 13:13). El tipo de amor del que habló San Pablo no es el tipo de amor romántico y sentimental basado en gran medida en los sentimientos que el mundo promueve todo el tiempo, sino el amor desinteresado y dador de vida basado únicamente en el amor de Dios. Por su naturaleza, este tipo de amor es sacrificial y está siempre dirigido al bien de la persona amada. Es el tipo de amor por el cual Jesucristo se entrega a nosotros y al mundo.

Este es el tipo de amor que estamos llamados a ofrecernos unos a otros. Que este amor sea nuestro San Valentín para todos, mostrando el amor que Dios tiene por nosotros en Jesucristo ofreciéndolo a los demás, especialmente a aquellos que tienen hambre de amor, e incluso a aquellos que pueden no ser amables en nuestras vidas. ¡Feliz día de San Valentín y que Dios te bendiga a ti y a todos tus seres queridos siempre!

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

Mons. Cuong M. Pham
