FROM THE PASTOR'S HEART

June 22, 2025

Dear brothers and sisters,

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ—Corpus Christi—a feast that invites us to rejoice in the extraordinary gift of the Eucharist. In the humble signs of bread and wine, we receive not merely a symbol, but Jesus Christ Himself—truly present in His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity.

This sacred reality, made present at every Mass through the mystery of transubstantiation, is at the very heart of our Catholic faith. When the priest pronounces the words of consecration, the bread and wine are changed into the real and living presence of our Lord. Each time we approach the Altar to receive Holy Communion, we encounter Christ personally—our Savior, our sustenance, our source of eternal life.

Sadly, a growing number of Catholics have lost sight of this mystery. Irreverence or indifference toward the Eucharist reflects a deeper erosion of faith. When we forget whom we are receiving, we risk treating the Sacred Host casually, even carelessly. The Eucharist demands not only belief, but a response—one of reverence, humility, and devotion.

This is especially important when receiving Holy Communion in the hand. The Church asks that we form a throne for our King: one hand placed flat over the other. Once the Sacred Host is given, step aside and consume the Lord immediately and reverently. Do not snatch Him, walk away without consuming Him, or—God forbid—put Him in your pocket. Such actions are serious abuses of the Sacrament and deeply distressing to all who witness them.

In this regard, I wish to thank our Eucharistic ministers and parish ushers for their quiet heroism. With patience and compassion, they often navigate difficult moments when someone approaches Communion unprepared or unaware of what they are doing. Some come forward wearing hats, dressed inappropriately, or without concern for basic hygiene. Others behave with shocking irreverence—grabbing the Host, turning away without consuming Him, or treating Him as something ordinary. In some cases, individuals have even tried to leave the church with the Eucharist still in their hands.

To our ministers and ushers: thank you for your vigilance and charity. Your service is indispensable to the dignity of our worship. I also ask all parishioners to assist in fostering a reverent environment. If you ever see someone walk away without consuming the Host, approach them gently and respectfully. Remind them that the Eucharist is not something we keep, but Someone we receive—immediately and with devotion.

Even the simplest acts speak volumes. Removing hats upon entering church is a small yet powerful gesture of reverence. Our external behavior reflects our inner disposition (lex orandi, lex credendi). So too does our preparation: remember the Eucharistic fast—abstaining from food and drink (including gum or soda) for one hour before Communion—as a sign of spiritual readiness.

Above all, we must be in a state of grace. If you are conscious of mortal sin, please go to confession before receiving Holy Communion. As St. Paul teaches, to receive unworthily is to bring judgment upon oneself (1 Cor 11:27–29). The Lord desires to nourish us, not to be received in vain.

As Pope Francis reminds us, "The Eucharist is not a prize for the perfect but a powerful medicine and nourishment for the weak" (Evangelii Gaudium, 47). We do not come to the Altar because we are holy, but because we need God's mercy. Yet even this mercy requires that we come with open hearts, rightly disposed, and full of awe.

As we honor the mystery of the Eucharist this Corpus Christi, may we renew our love for the Lord truly present among us. Let our parish be known for the reverence we show at every Mass—at the Altar, in our hearts, and in the witness we give to one another.

With my prayers and blessings,

Msgr. Cuong M. Pham

DEL CORAZON DEL PASTOR

22 de Junio, 2025

Queridos amados hermanos y hermanas,

Este fin de semana celebramos con gran gozo la Solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo, conocida como la fiesta de Corpus Christi. Es una ocasión profundamente sagrada para reconocer con fe viva que Jesús no nos dejó solos: permanece con nosotros realmente presente en la Eucaristía. No es símbolo, no es recuerdo, es Él: el mismo Jesús que nació en Belén, murió en la cruz, resucitó glorioso, y hoy se nos da como el Pan Vivo bajado del cielo.

¡Qué regalo tan inmenso! ¡Dios mismo que se hace nuestro alimento! A través de la consagración en la Santa Misa, el pan y el vino dejan de ser lo que eran para convertirse verdaderamente en el Cuerpo, la Sangre, el Alma y la Divinidad del Señor. Este milagro que ocurre a diario en el altar es lo que la Iglesia llama transubstanciación, y es uno de los mayores tesoros de nuestra fe católica.

Y, sin embargo, es doloroso ver que este misterio sublime no siempre es recibido con la fe y el respeto que merece. Algunos, por falta de formación o por descuido, se acercan a comulgar sin comprender a Quién reciben. Otros lo hacen sin preparación espiritual, sin observar el mínimo de decoro en su vestimenta. También hay quienes se presentan con actitudes distraídas o incluso irrespetuosas. Más preocupante aún, hay casos en los que algunas personas intentan llevarse la Hostia consagrada sin consumirla, lo cual representa un abuso grave y una profanación del Santísimo Sacramento.

Por eso quiero expresar mi profundo agradecimiento a nuestros ministros extraordinarios de la Comunión y a nuestros ujieres parroquiales. Su servicio firme, paciente y discreto ha sido fundamental para cuidar la santidad del altar y del Cuerpo de Cristo. Con caridad y respeto, han sabido actuar en momentos difíciles, asistiendo a quienes, por desconocimiento o por imprudencia, se comportan de forma inadecuada. Los animo a seguir cumpliendo esta misión con valentía y dulzura. Y a toda nuestra comunidad, les hago un llamado a ser también custodios del Señor: si ven a alguien retirarse sin haber consumido la Sagrada Hostia, por favor, acérquense con humildad y amor fraterno, para recordar con claridad que la Comunión debe recibirse con fe, y consumirse inmediatamente.

Si recibes la Comunión en la mano, hazlo con verdadera devoción. Pon una mano sobre la otra, como quien ofrece un trono para el Rey. Espera a que el sacerdote o ministro coloque la Hostia en tu palma, y luego, con el mayor recogimiento, consúmela allí mismo, sin apresurarte, sin moverte aún de tu lugar. Nunca la tomes tú mismo, ni la retires con prisa, ni permitas que se trate como si fuera una cosa ordinaria. Recuerda: no estás recibiendo algo sagrado, estás recibiendo al mismo Cristo.

Además, como preparación indispensable, recordemos el ayuno eucarístico: una hora antes de recibir la Comunión, debemos abstenernos de alimentos y bebidas (excepto agua o medicina). Este ayuno expresa nuestro deseo de recibir al Señor con hambre espiritual, con el corazón abierto, y no con rutina. También es esencial estar en estado de gracia. Si hemos cometido un pecado grave, no debemos comulgar sin antes recibir el perdón de Dios en el sacramento de la Reconciliación. Como nos advierte San Pablo, "quien come el Pan o bebe el Cáliz del Señor indignamente, se hace reo del Cuerpo y de la Sangre del Señor" (1 Cor 11, 27).

El Papa Francisco nos recuerda que "la Eucaristía no es un premio para los perfectos, sino un remedio para los débiles" (Evangelii Gaudium, 47). Jesús no nos pide ser santos para acercarnos, pero sí nos pide acercarnos con humildad, arrepentimiento y fe viva. Él quiere sanar nuestras heridas, renovar nuestras fuerzas y encender nuestro amor. Pero para eso, necesita ser recibido como lo que es: Dios vivo entre nosotros.

Que esta fiesta de Corpus Christi sea para todos nosotros un momento de renovación espiritual. Renovemos nuestra fe, nuestra gratitud y nuestra reverencia al Señor presente en la Eucaristía.

Con cariño pastoral y bendiciones,

Mons. Cuong M. Pham

Stop Physician-Assisted Suicide in New York

New York is on the brink of legalizing physician-assisted suicide. Bill A136 has already passed the Senate and Assembly. The only thing standing in its way is Governor Hochul's veto – and she needs to hear from you.

This bill would allow doctors to prescribe lethal medication with the sole purpose of ending a patient's life. It puts the most vulnerable among us – the elderly, people with disabilities, and those facing emotional or financial despair – at even greater risk. Suicide is not healthcare.

We must speak out to protect the dignity of every human life. Assisted suicide is a dangerous and deadly path – one we must not go down.

Take Action!

Contact the Governor's office now to oppose this deadly practice! Visit bit.ly/veto-pas or use the QR code.
