FROM THE PASTOR'S HEART

August 10, 2025

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The Scripture readings of this 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time remind us of a truth we often try to avoid: life is fragile, and our meeting with the Lord—as our Judge and Rewarder—can come at any time. The Book of Wisdom recalls how God's people of old lived in trusting faith, awaiting His promises. The Letter to the Hebrews praises Abraham, who journeyed in obedience without knowing where he was going, confident in God's word. And in the Gospel, Jesus urges us to be vigilant and prepared, like faithful servants awaiting the unexpected return of their master.

Elsewhere in Scripture, the Lord tells us: "Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will enter his house and dine with him and he with me" (Revelation 3:20). None of us knows the hour of our death or the moment we will be called to stand before the Lord. That is why Jesus calls us to live each day in readiness, so that when He knocks, we may open to Him with joy.

How do we remain ready? Not by anxious waiting, but by living each day in friendship with Christ. We prepare when our prayers become the heartbeat of a daily conversation with the Lord who listens and speaks through His Word. We prepare when we allow the Holy Spirit to guide our choices, nudging us away from selfishness and toward holiness. We prepare when we gather at the altar, offering not only bread and wine but our very lives, and receiving in return the Bread of Life that strengthens us for the journey. We prepare when we keep our hearts open to God's mercy, humbly seeking His forgiveness and extending that same mercy to others. And above all, we prepare when we live the commandment of love—not in theory, but in the small, hidden ways of generosity, service, and compassion, seeing in every face the image of Christ.

I am blessed to see so many of you living this vigilance through faithful stewardship in our parish. Think of the lady who spends hours each day helping in the parish office while also managing our multimedia platforms; the choirmaster who practices each week with our choirs to lift our hearts in worship; the decorator who spends many hours to prepare our sacred space each week; the parishioner who quietly pays for flowers in the sanctuary when she sees there are none; the volunteer sacristan who quietly arrives early each morning to prepare for Mass; the couple who straightens hymnals and tidies the pews after Mass; the usher who welcomes everyone with a smile; and the elderly woman who lovingly tends to our church day after day; the volunteer cook who generously prepares nutritious meals for our priests. None of these acts are glamorous, but each one is a lamp kept burning brightly, a sign of readiness and love in action.

This week, we also give special thanks for the safe return of our Youth Pilgrims, who have just come home from the Youth Jubilee in Rome with our Holy Father, Pope Leo. They represent the very best of our young people. Many of them are among the most visible faces in our parish, serving faithfully as sacristans, ushers, altar servers, lectors, choir members, youth group leaders, and members of our vocations committee. Yet, like the faithful stewards in today's Gospel, they too often choose service over spotlight. Their presence is a living reminder that Christ continues to raise up a new generation of vigilant disciples right here in our midst.

Each of us has been entrusted with gifts—some large, some small—but all meant to serve Christ and His Church. The Lord will not judge us on the size of our gifts, but on the faithfulness with which we used them. May He find us ready, with lamps lit and hearts awake, faithfully carrying out our tasks of love and service.

With heartfelt gratitude, I thank all of you—the visible and the unseen, the countless faithful stewards who give of their time, talent, and love so generously. You are the heartbeat of this parish, and through you, the light of Christ shines brightly in our community.

Let us then live each day as though the Lord were coming tonight—not in fear, but in joyful readiness, so that when He does knock, we may open the door at once and dine with Him forever.

In Christ's love,

Msgr. Cuong M. Pham

DEL CORAZON DEL PASTOR

10 de Agosto, 2025

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Las lecturas de este domingo nos recuerdan una verdad que a menudo tratamos de evitar: la vida es frágil, y nuestro encuentro con el Señor —como nuestro Juez y Recompensador— puede llegar en cualquier momento. El Libro de la Sabiduría nos recuerda cómo el pueblo de Dios de antaño vivía con fe confiada, esperando Sus promesas. La Carta a los Hebreos alaba a Abraham, quien emprendió su camino en obediencia sin saber adónde iba, confiado en la palabra de Dios. Y en el Evangelio, Jesús nos exhorta a estar vigilantes y preparados, como los siervos fieles que aguardan el inesperado regreso de su señor.

En otro pasaje de la Sagrada Escritura, el Señor nos dice: «Mira, yo estoy a la puerta y llamo; si alguien escucha mi voz y me abre, entraré y cenaré con él, y él conmigo» (Apocalipsis 3:20). Ninguno de nosotros sabe la hora de nuestra muerte ni el momento en que seremos llamados a presentarnos ante el Señor. Por eso Jesús nos invita a vivir cada día en disposición, para que cuando Él llame, podamos abrirle la puerta con alegría.

¿Y cómo nos mantenemos preparados? No con una espera ansiosa, sino viviendo cada día en amistad con Cristo. Nos preparamos cuando nuestra oración se convierte en el latido constante de un diálogo diario con el Señor. Nos preparamos cuando dejamos que el Espíritu Santo guíe nuestras decisiones, apartándonos del egoísmo y acercándonos a la santidad. Nos preparamos cuando nos reunimos en el altar, ofreciendo no solo pan y vino, sino también nuestras vidas, y recibiendo a cambio el Pan de Vida que nos fortalece para el camino. Nos preparamos cuando mantenemos nuestros corazones abiertos a la misericordia de Dios, buscando con humildad su perdón y extendiendo esa misma misericordia a los demás. Y, sobre todo, nos preparamos cuando vivimos el mandamiento del amor —no en teoría, sino en esos pequeños y ocultos actos de generosidad, servicio y compasión, viendo en cada rostro la imagen de Cristo.

Me siento bendecido al ver a tantos de ustedes viviendo esta vigilancia a través de un fiel servicio en nuestra parroquia. Pienso en la señora que pasa horas cada día ayudando en la oficina parroquial; en el director del coro que practica cada semana con nuestros coristas para elevar nuestros corazones en la alabanza; en el trabajador dedicado que ofrece su tiempo y talento preparando la música y ensayando con los miembros del coro; en el sacristán voluntario que llega temprano cada mañana para abrir la iglesia y preparar la Misa; en la decoradora que dona muchas horas arreglando el santuario con belleza; en el feligrés que discretamente paga las flores del santuario cuando nota que no hay; en la pareja que acomoda los himnarios y ordena los bancos después de Misa; en el ujier que recibe a todos con una sonrisa; y en la mujer mayor que cuida con amor la iglesia y su belleza día tras día; en la cocinera generosa que cada día prepara comidas nutritivas para nuestros sacerdotes. Ninguno de estos actos es llamativo, pero cada uno mantiene encendida una lámpara, signo de vigilancia y amor en acción.

Esta semana también damos gracias de corazón por el regreso seguro de nuestros Jóvenes Peregrinos, quienes acaban de volver del Jubileo de la Juventud en Roma con nuestro Santo Padre, el Papa León. Ellos representan lo mejor de nuestra juventud. Muchos de ellos son de los rostros más visibles de nuestra parroquia, sirviendo fielmente como sacristanes, ujieres, monaguillos, lectores, miembros del coro, líderes del grupo juvenil y miembros del comité vocacional. Sin embargo, al igual que los siervos fieles del Evangelio de hoy, a menudo prefieren el servicio al protagonismo. Su presencia es un recordatorio vivo de que Cristo sigue levantando aquí, en medio de nosotros, una nueva generación de discípulos vigilantes.

Cada uno de nosotros ha recibido dones —unos grandes, otros pequeños— pero todos destinados a servir a Cristo y a su Iglesia. Con sincera gratitud, doy gracias a todos ustedes —los visibles y los invisibles, los incontables siervos fieles que ofrecen tan generosamente su tiempo, talento y amor. A través de ustedes, la luz de Cristo brilla intensamente en nuestra comunidad.

Vivamos, entonces, cada día como si el Señor viniera esta misma noche—no con temor, sino con gozosa disponibilidad, para que, cuando Él llame, podamos abrirle la puerta de inmediato y sentarnos a la mesa con Él para siempre.

Con el amor de Cristo,

Mons. Cuong M. Pham

YOUTH JUBILEE WITH POPE LEO XIV - ROMA 2025

What bishop waits at the airport to make sure all his parishioners arrive safely? Ours! That's how our pilgrimage to Rome began — personally greeted by Bishop Brennan, Father Kuroly, and a dedicated group of priests ready to shepherd their young pilgrims through the sacred sites that awaited us. From visiting St. Francis and soon-to-be Saint Carlo Acutis in Assisi to walking through all four Holy Doors of Rome's major basilicas, it was a journey our youth will not soon forget.

We extend our heartfelt thanks to Bishop Brennan and our pilgrimage priests, as well as to Msgr. Pham and the OLMC community for their support in making the Jubilee of Hope trip possible.

Praise be to Jesus Christ!
