FROM THE PASTOR'S HEART

October 26, 2025

Dear brothers and sisters,

As we enter the 30th Week in Ordinary Time, this Sunday's Gospel recounts the story of two men who went up to the Temple to pray—one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee boasted of his goodness, while the tax collector humbly said, "O God, be merciful to me, a sinner." (Luke 18:13) This parable teaches us that the value of prayer does not depend on its external form, length, or setting, but on the humility and sincerity of the heart that prays. God listens not to those who appear pious, but to those who love Him and trust Him deeply.

This insight invites us to reflect on how we bring our own prayers and intentions before the Lord—especially through that highest and most perfect prayer of all: the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. The Church teaches that every Mass is the one sacrifice of Christ on Calvary, offered anew sacramentally for the salvation of the world. When we request that a Mass be offered for someone —living or deceased—or for a particular grace, we unite our prayer to the eternal offering of Christ Himself, the High Priest who intercedes for us before the Father.

As the month of All Souls approaches, many of you will wish to remember your loved ones at Mass. This is one of the most sacred ways to honor them—more meaningful than any other devotion or good work—because it joins your intercession to Christ's own. Yet, some still think a Sunday Mass is "stronger" than a weekday Mass, or that being present when the intention is announced makes it more effective. In truth, every Mass has infinite value, because it is always the same Christ who offers Himself. Whether celebrated on a quiet weekday morning or a crowded Sunday, privately or publicly, it draws from the same inexhaustible grace.

Each Mass is ordinarily celebrated for only one intention, except in those Masses with collective intentions, which the bishop has expressly permitted as a pastoral exception. Each intention in turn carries with it a stipend—a freewill offering established by the Church as both an expression of the faithful's participation in the sacrifice and a means of supporting the priest who celebrates it. In our Diocese of Brooklyn, the bishop has set the offering at $20 per Mass. According to Church law, a priest may accept only one such stipend per day, and that small sum is meant to help sustain his personal needs. You can imagine how modest that truly is, given the physical, emotional, and spiritual demands of priestly ministry today. As the Lord Himself said, "The laborer deserves his wages." (Luke 10:7)

When a Mass is celebrated without an intention, the priest receives no stipend that day. Out of pastoral concern, I often seek intentions from other parishes around the country so that each priest here may be supported. At times, I have chosen to celebrate a Mass without any stipend, so that my brother priests—my closest collaborators—might receive one on that day.

The Church's Decree on Mass Stipends, Mos iugiter (1974), reminds us that stipends are "a means by which the faithful contribute to the support of the ministers of the Church and participate in her solicitude for the sacred liturgy." Far from being a "payment," it is a gesture of faith and communion, uniting the faithful's offering to the very sacrifice of Christ.

Thus, my dear brothers and sisters, I invite you to rediscover this beautiful practice. Consider requesting Masses not only on Sundays but also during the week—for your own need, your loved ones, your families, for peace, in celebration of a milestone, or in thanksgiving for blessings received. Consider giving it as a gift to someone. Each intention is a spiritual investment that bears fruit in eternity—an act of faith that benefits both the person remembered and the soul who prays.

When parents do this regularly, they also teach their children about the sacred value of the Holy Mass and the importance of praying for others. Someday, those same children will remember their parents in the same way, continuing the beautiful chain of love that unites us all in Christ.

In doing so, you join the prayer of the humble tax collector—trusting not in the grandeur of the moment, but in the mercy of God who hears the sincere prayer of His people.

With sincere prayer for each of you at the Altar,

Msgr. "John" Cuong M. Pham

DEL CORAZON DEL PASTOR

26 de Octubre, 2025

Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

Al comenzar la Trigésima Semana del Tiempo Ordinario, el Evangelio de este domingo nos presenta a dos hombres que subieron al templo para orar: uno era fariseo y el otro, publicano. El fariseo se gloriaba de sus buenas obras, mientras que el publicano, con humildad, decía: "Oh Dios, ten compasión de mí, que soy un pecador" (Lucas 18,13). Con esta parábola, Jesús nos enseña que el valor de la oración no depende de su forma, duración o lugar, sino de la humildad y sinceridad del corazón. Dios escucha no al que aparenta ser religioso, sino al que lo ama y confía verdaderamente en Él.

Esta enseñanza nos invita a reflexionar sobre cómo presentamos nuestras intenciones al Señor, especialmente por medio de la oración más perfecta: la Santa Misa. La Iglesia enseña que en cada Misa se hace presente el único sacrificio de Cristo en el Calvario, ofrecido nuevamente de manera sacramental para la salvación del mundo. Cuando pedimos que se celebre una Misa por una persona —viva o difunta— o por una intención especial, unimos nuestra oración a la ofrenda eterna de Cristo, el Sumo Sacerdote que intercede por nosotros ante el Padre.

Al acercarse el Mes de los Fieles Difuntos, muchos querrán recordar a sus seres queridos en la Misa. Esta es una de las formas más sagradas de honrarlos, más significativa que cualquier otra devoción o buena obra, porque une nuestra intercesión con la de Cristo mismo. Sin embargo, algunas personas piensan que la Misa dominical es "más fuerte" que una entre semana, o que tiene más valor si están presentes cuando se anuncia la intención. En realidad, toda Misa tiene un valor infinito, porque siempre es el mismo Cristo quien se ofrece. Ya sea en una tranquila mañana entre semana o en un domingo lleno de gente, la gracia que brota del Altar es la misma.

Cada Misa se celebra ordinariamente por una sola intención, excepto en las Misas de intenciones colectivas, que el Obispo ha permitido expresamente como excepción pastoral. Cada intención, a su vez, lleva consigo un estipendio, una ofrenda voluntaria que expresa la participación de los fieles en el sacrificio y ayuda al sacerdote celebrante. En nuestra Diócesis de Brooklyn, el obispo ha establecido que la ofrenda sea de $20 por Misa. Según la ley de la Iglesia, el sacerdote solo puede aceptar un estipendio al día, y esa pequeña cantidad sirve para su sustento. Como dijo el Señor: "El obrero merece su salario" (Lucas 10,7).

Cuando una Misa se celebra sin intención, el sacerdote no recibe estipendio ese día. Por ello, por cuidado pastoral, a veces busco intenciones en otras parroquias de todo el país para que cada sacerdote pueda estar sostenido. En ocasiones, yo mismo he celebrado Misas sin estipendio, para que mis hermanos sacerdotes —mis más cercanos colaboradores— puedan recibir uno al día.

El Decreto Mos iugiter (1974) nos recuerda que los estipendios son "un medio por el cual los fieles contribuyen al sostenimiento de los ministros de la Iglesia y participan en su solicitud por la sagrada liturgia." No es un "pago" por la oración, sino un gesto de fe y comunión, que une la ofrenda del pueblo al sacrificio mismo de Cristo.

Queridos hermanos, los invito a redescubrir esta hermosa tradición. Consideren pedir intenciones de Misa no solo los domingos, sino también entre semana: por sus seres queridos, por sus familias, por la paz o en acción de gracias por las bendiciones recibidas. Cada intención es una semilla de fe que produce frutos eternos y que beneficia tanto al recordado como a quien ofrece la oración.

Cuando los padres hacen esto con frecuencia, enseñan también a sus hijos el valor sagrado de la Santa Misa y la importancia de orar por los demás. Algún día, esos mismos hijos recordarán a sus padres de la misma manera, continuando la hermosa cadena de fe, amor y oración que nos une a todos en Cristo.

Así nos unimos a la oración del humilde publicano, confiando no en la grandeza del momento, sino en la misericordia de Dios, que siempre escucha la oración sincera de su pueblo.

Con sincera oración por cada uno de ustedes en el Altar,

Mons. "Juan" Cuong M. Pham

ALL SAINTS DAY

November 1st is the Feast of All Saints. On this day, we honor all those who have reached the glory of heaven and now stand before God's throne in ceaseless praise. The vision from Revelation—"a great multitude from every nation, clothed in white robes"—reminds us of our baptism and our call to holiness. Each time we celebrate Mass, we join "the angels and archangels and all the company of heaven" in their song of "Holy, Holy, Holy." This year, November 1st falls on a Saturday and is not a Holy Day of Obligation. We will celebrate a Vigil Mass on Friday at 7:30 PM and a Solemn Mass on Saturday at 8:00 AM, both in the main church.

ALL SOULS DAY

Sunday, November 2nd is All Souls Day. On this day, we pray for all the faithful departed and express our hope in the resurrection. Lighting candles, visiting cemeteries, and offering Masses for our loved ones are signs of faith in Christ's victory over death. Other cherished Catholic practices—requesting Masses for the deceased, offering donations or memorial gifts in their name, supporting charitable causes, or offering daily sacrifices for them—are beautiful expressions of faithful-filled remembrance. At all Sunday Masses, we will remember by name our parishioners who have died this past year.

DIA DE TODOS LOS SANTOS

El 1º de noviembre es la Fiesta de Todos los Santos. En este día honramos a todos aquellos que han alcanzado la gloria del cielo y ahora están de pie ante el trono de Dios en alabanza eterna. La visión del Apocalipsis—"una gran multitud de todas las naciones, vestida con túnicas blancas"—nos recuerda nuestro Bautismo y nuestro llamado a la santidad. Cada vez que celebramos la Misa, nos unimos "a los ángeles, los arcángeles y toda la corte celestial" en su canto de "Santo, Santo, Santo." Este año, el 1º de noviembre cae en sábado y no es día de precepto. Celebraremos una Misa de Vigilia el viernes a las 7:30 p.m. y una Misa Solemne el sábado a las 8:00 a.m., ambas en la iglesia principal.

DIA DE LOS FIELES DIFUNTOS

Domingo, 2 de noviembre es el Día de los Fieles Difuntos. En este día, oramos por todos los que han partido y expresamos nuestra esperanza en la resurrección. Encender velas, visitar los cementerios y ofrecer Misas por nuestros seres queridos son signos de fe en la victoria de Cristo sobre la muerte. Otras prácticas como pedir Misas por los difuntos, hacer donaciones o regalos conmemorativos en su nombre, apoyar obras de caridad u ofrecer sacrificios diarios por ellos—son hermosas expresiones de un recuerdo lleno de fe. En todas las Misas dominicales recordaremos por su nombre a nuestros feligreses que han fallecido durante el último año.

UPCOMING DIOCESAN YOUTH & YOUNG ADULT HOLY HOURS

Below are the Youth Holy Hours that the Diocese will offer monthly. The desire and hope for these Holy Hours is to gather our youth together in the presence of our Lord. As we gather with them, we interceded for them and with them, continuously being reminded that they are who we are serving, they are not the future of our Church, they are the Church. All families are welcome & invited to spend time before the Blessed Sacrament!

The hope for the Young Adult Holy Hours are to gather in the presence of our Lord and to provide them with an evening of prayer, a short talk, confession and fellowship. The location for each Young Adult Holy Hour will be at San Damiano Mission, 85 North 15th Street, Brooklyn, NY, at 7:00pm. There will be a different topic on each date, given by varying speakers following the Holy Hour. Below are the dates and themes for each month's topic.
