PRAYING FOR THE SICK

Prayer is one of the most powerful tools we have. It's a way for us to communicate with God and obtain His divine intervention. It can help sick people get well again and also gives us the strength in our own weakness and suffering. To add names to our Prayer List, please contact the parish office. There is no cost for enrolling people onto this list.

SAINT ANTHONY OF PADUA

The Italian Community of Our Lady of Mount Carmel of Astoria, invites you to come and celebrate a Mass in Honor of Saint Anthony of Padua on Saturday June 13, at 10:00am. We will distribute bread after the Mass. Saint Anthony pray for us.

FIRST FRIDAY EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Spiritual writers speak of Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament as "the Mass held in contemplation." Devotion to the Eucharist will take place on Friday, June 5, 2026. Exposition and Adoration will take place right after the 8:00am Mass and will conclude with Solemn Benediction before the start of the 12 Noon Mass.

FROM THE PASTOR'S HEART

May 31, 2026

My dear parishioners,

As I return to the ordinary rhythm of parish life after the joyful celebrations of my Silver Jubilee of Priesthood this past weekend, my heart is still filled with profound gratitude, joy, and renewed energy.

I wish to thank all who worked so tirelessly to make these celebrations so beautiful and memorable: those who prepared the liturgies, decorated the church and reception halls, organized the festivities, set up and cleaned, welcomed guests, coordinated countless details behind the scenes, and offered prayers and sacrifices quietly and lovingly. I was also deeply touched by the presence of bishops, priests, religious, family members, friends, and parishioners who traveled from near and far simply to celebrate together as one family in faith.

More than anything else, this past weekend reminded me of a truth that has become clearer to me after twenty-five years of priesthood: priesthood is never lived alone. A priest may receive the sacrament personally, but he lives his vocation within the communion of the Church. No priest serves by his own strength alone. He is sustained by the prayers, encouragement, sacrifices, patience, and love of God's people.

How fitting, then, that immediately after Pentecost, the Church invites us to contemplate the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity. The Trinity is not simply a doctrine to be explained, but the perfect communion of love: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit living in complete unity and self-giving. And that is precisely what the Church is called to mirror in the world.

In this Sunday's First Reading, Moses prays to the Lord with these beautiful words: "Please come along in our company" (Exodus 34: 8-9).That line has remained in my heart all week. During these Jubilee celebrations, I truly felt that the Lord was walking among us—in the joy of our people, the unity of our parish family, the generosity of volunteers, and the love shared among people of different cultures, languages, and generations gathered together in faith. Looking around our church throughout those days, I felt deeply grateful and humbled to be the pastor of this parish family here at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church.

In this Sunday's Second Reading, St. Paul gives the beautiful blessing we hear so often at Mass: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you" (2 Corinthians 13:13). During this Jubilee weekend, I experienced that grace, that love, and that fellowship very powerfully through all of you.

Our parish family is not perfect. Like every family, we have our weaknesses and limitations. Yet when we pray together, serve together, support one another, and carry one another's burdens, we become—however imperfectly—a reflection of the very mystery we celebrate this Sunday: the Blessed Trinity, the eternal communion of love. After twenty-five years of priesthood, I remain convinced more than ever that the Church is most beautiful when we live not as isolated individuals, but as one family in Christ.

It is with that same spirit of gratitude for family, faith, and the many blessings God has given me through all of you that I share with you that, in the coming days, I will be away for about a month as I accompany my mother to Vietnam to visit our family and homeland. I look forward to this opportunity for much needed rest, reconnection, and renewal. I also look forward to visiting the two orphanages that our parish so generously helped support following my last visit to Vietnam three years ago. These homes, run by religious sisters, care lovingly for orphaned children born with severe disabilities linked to the lingering effects of Agent Orange from the Vietnam War. I know that seeing them once again will be both deeply moving and spiritually enriching for me.

Thank you again for all your affection and prayerful support. Be assured that you will be remembered each day at the Altar.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Msgr. John Cuong M. Pham

DEL CORAZON DEL PASTOR

31 de mayo, 2026

Mis queridos feligreses,

Al regresar al ritmo ordinario de la vida parroquial después de las alegres celebraciones de mi Jubileo de Plata Sacerdotal el pasado fin de semana, mi corazón sigue lleno de profunda gratitud, alegría y renovadas energías.

Deseo agradecer de todo corazón a todos los que trabajaron tan incansablemente para hacer de estas celebraciones algo tan hermoso y memorable: quienes prepararon las liturgias, decoraron la iglesia y los salones, organizaron las festividades, ayudaron con el montaje y la limpieza, recibieron a los invitados, coordinaron innumerables detalles detrás de escena y ofrecieron sus oraciones y sacrificios de manera silenciosa y amorosa. También me conmovió profundamente la presencia de obispos, sacerdotes, religiosos, familiares, amigos y feligreses que viajaron desde cerca y desde lejos simplemente para celebrar juntos como una sola familia en la fe.

Más que nada, este fin de semana me recordó una verdad que se ha vuelto cada vez más clara para mí después de veinticinco años de sacerdocio: el sacerdocio nunca se vive solo. Un sacerdote puede recibir el sacramento personalmente, pero vive su vocación dentro de la comunión de la Iglesia. Ningún sacerdote sirve únicamente con sus propias fuerzas. Es sostenido por las oraciones, el apoyo, los sacrificios, la paciencia y el amor del pueblo de Dios.

Qué apropiado es, entonces, que inmediatamente después de Pentecostés, la Iglesia nos invite a contemplar el misterio de la Santísima Trinidad. La Trinidad no es simplemente una doctrina que debe explicarse, sino la perfecta comunión de amor: el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo viviendo en perfecta unidad y amor entregado. Y eso es precisamente lo que la Iglesia está llamada a reflejar en el mundo.

En la Primera Lectura de este domingo, Moisés dirige al Señor estas hermosas palabras: "Ven con nosotros" (Éxodo 34, 8-9). Esa frase ha permanecido en mi corazón toda esta semana. Durante las celebraciones jubilares, verdaderamente sentí que el Señor caminaba entre nosotros: en la alegría de nuestra gente, en la unidad de nuestra familia parroquial, en la generosidad de los voluntarios y en el amor compartido entre personas de distintas culturas, idiomas y generaciones reunidas en la fe. Al contemplar nuestra iglesia durante esos días, me sentí profundamente agradecido y privilegiado de ser el pastor de esta familia parroquial aquí.

En la Segunda Lectura de este domingo, San Pablo nos ofrece la hermosa bendición que escuchamos tan frecuentemente en la Santa Misa: "La gracia de nuestro Señor Jesucristo, el amor del Padre y la comunión del Espíritu Santo estén con todos ustedes" (2 Corintios 13, 13). Durante este fin de semana jubilar, experimenté esa gracia, ese amor y esa comunión de una manera muy profunda a través de todos ustedes.

Nuestra familia parroquial no es perfecta. Como toda familia, tenemos nuestras debilidades y limitaciones. Sin embargo, cuando rezamos juntos, servimos juntos, nos apoyamos mutuamente y llevamos las cargas unos de otros, nos convertimos —aunque imperfectamente— en reflejo del mismo misterio que celebramos este domingo: la Santísima Trinidad, la eterna comunión de amor. Después de veinticinco años de sacerdocio, estoy más convencido que nunca de que la Iglesia es más hermosa cuando vivimos no como individuos aislados, sino como una sola familia en Cristo.

Con ese mismo espíritu de gratitud por la familia, la fe y las innumerables bendiciones que Dios me ha concedido a través de todos ustedes, quiero compartirles que en los próximos días estaré fuera aproximadamente un mes mientras acompaño a mi madre a Vietnam para visitar a nuestra familia y nuestra tierra natal. Espero que este tiempo me permita descansar un poco, reencontrarme con mi familia y renovar el espíritu. También espero poder visitar los dos orfanatos que nuestra parroquia ayudó generosamente a sostener después de mi último viaje a Vietnam hace tres años. Estos hogares, dirigidos por religiosas, cuidan amorosamente a niños huérfanos que sufren graves discapacidades causadas por las secuelas del Agente Naranja durante la Guerra de Vietnam. Sé que volver a verlos será para mí una experiencia profundamente conmovedora y espiritualmente enriquecedora.

Gracias nuevamente por tanto cariño, apoyo y oraciones. Tengan la certeza de que los recordaré cada día en el Altar.

Fielmente suyo en Cristo,

Mons. Juan Cuong M. Pham
